

Answers for the Extremely Vile and Incredibly Literary (E.V.I.L) quiz!

1. In Roald Dahl's popular children's short story Esio Trot, Mr. Hoppy offers to help Mrs. Silvers with her pet in order to win her heart. What type of animal is her pet?

Answer: Tortoise

2. Which country was Mary Lennox from The Secret Garden born in?

Answer: India

3. Give the full title to the prequel of J.R.R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings.

Answer: The Hobbit

4. The first comic superhero character wears a costume for crime fighting and has a mask without visible pupils. Name this superhero.

Answer: The Phantom

5. Who marched 10,000 men to the top of the hill and marched them down again?

Answer: The Grand Old Duke of York

6. This poor farm animal is only mentioned in the beginning of a classic fairy tale. She is worth so little to her master – just a handful of beans! What is her name?

Answer: Milky White

7. DC Comics, Inc. is an American comic book publisher. Its initials come from the company's comic book series that first featured Batman. What does DC stand for?

Answer: Detective Comics

8. This award-winning graphic novel by Art Spiegelman is set in World War II and features mice as Jews. What is the title of this graphic novel?

Answer: Maus

9. How many creatures does the old lady swallow after the fly?

Answer: 7; Spider, Bird, Cat, Dog, Goat, Cow, Horse

10. This is probably the most well-known award in the graphic novel industry and is given out annually at Comic-Con International in San Diego. What is the name of this award?

Answer: Eisner Award